

WITT TO FACE DEATH CHAIR IF CONVICTED

FORMER PUTNAM MAN AND AL-LEGED ACCOMPLICE GO ON TRIAL MONDAY

ARE CHARGED WITH MURDER

Slaying in Commission of Robbery Punishable by Death in Electric Chair

The demand of the state of Indiana that the lives of two men be forfeited to society in return for their alleged taking of the life of another will be answered in the Boone circuit court in Lebanon Monday.

Charles Vernon Witt, 27-year-old escaped "lifer" from the Kansas state prison, and Louis E. Hamilton, 26 years old, of Iola, Kan., are charged with slaying Lafayette A. Jackson, president of the Standard Grocery Co. in the main store of the concern, 419 East Washington street, Indianapolis, May 27.

The true bill returned in the Marion county criminal court charges them with murder in the commission of a robbery.

For this crime there is only one penalty written in the criminal statutes of Indiana—death in the electric chair.

Prosecutor Herbert E. Wilson will lead the state's fight to convict Witt and Hamilton, assisted by Floyd J. Matice, chief deputy prosecutor, and Ben M. Seifres, Boone county prosecutor. The defense will be under charge of Ira M. Holmes, Indianapolis attorney, and the Lebanon law firm of Rogers & Smith, headed by Elza O. Rogers, former Republican state chairman.

The trial was venued to Boone county on motion of defense attorneys under contention that Witt and Hamilton could not obtain a fair and impartial trial in Marion county.

Witt's wife, Naomi, will be at his side during the trial. She has remained loyal to her husband since his capture June 25. Relatives of Hamilton also have come to his defense and have made frequent trips to the Marion county jail to visit him.

Hamilton was arrested at his Kansas home June 24 by Sheriff Bud Harley of that county. He was with his bride of less than one week, the former Miss Ione Vandergrift of Chanute, Kan. Witt eluded Iola authorities. He fled to Indianapolis, where detectives were awaiting him when he drove up to his former rooming house near Eleventh street and College avenue. He was heavily armed when captured.

JAPANESE TROOPS ADVANCE ON HARBIN

LONDON, Jan. 9 (UP)—A dispatch from Harbin, Manchuria, today to the Exchange Telegraph Co., said that Japanese troops were advancing toward Harbin and had bombed a town 100 miles from the city.

The Japanese reportedly were advancing from Kirin. The dispatch said an airplane had dropped two bombs on the town of Wuchang-Yushu.

Harbin is a key city on the Soviet controlled Chinese Eastern Railway. There is an important foreign population there. Rioting occurred in Harbin between Chinese and Russians earlier this week.

LET US RESOLVE

How many times in the past week we all in our homes, on the streets, and in the stores, have exchanged the good old greeting, "Happy New Year!" Have we thought just what that means? Very rarely a happy spirit dwells in a body racked with pain or disease. Wishing each other a happy new year means that we wish for each other first of all health. And when we stop to think, we know not only that we are sincere in wishing each other good health but that we each have a responsibility in the making of the wish come true.

In wishing the people of Putnam county better health in 1932 we have one fact to be thankful for. There is more hope of the wish coming true because this county has been for nearly a century an educational center. We are a so-called enlightened community. More is expected of us than as though we had not had the privilege of sharing for many decades the up-to-date knowledge that comes so freely to those who live in a university town. It is our plan to think together during 1932 of the many ways in which we can work together to make 1932 a happier new year than we have ever known.

FARM BUREAU DRIVE WILL START JAN. 18

SERIES OF PRELIMINARY MEET-INGS TO BE HELD IN VARIOUS TOWNSHIPS

A series of farm bureau meetings will be held in various townships in Putnam county beginning Monday as a preliminary to the farm bureau drive for 300 members to be conducted from January 18 to 23.

The Putnam county farm bureau has adopted for its 1932 slogan, "Let's Get Together," and under the direction of Glendyn Irwin, chairman of the membership drive, is optimistic of attaining its goal of 300 members for 1932.

Excellent programs are being arranged for the preliminary meetings which will start at 7:30 o'clock at the various meeting places. The schedule of preliminary meetings follows:

- Jan. 11—Russell twp., Russellville.
- Jan. 12—Floyd and Marion twps., Fillmore high school building.
- Jan. 13—Madison, Center school.
- Jan. 14—Monroe twp., Bainbridge high school building.
- Jan. 15—Clinton twp., Clinton Center.
- Jan. 18—Franklin and Jackson twps., Rosedale.

- Jan. 20—Cloverdale and Warren twps., Cloverdale.
- Jan. 21—Washington twp., Reelsville high school.

Robbers Taken To Reformatory

LOCAL ATTORNEY WILL ASSIST IN DEFENSE OF HESTER
LANGFORD

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 9.—William Clarence Langford, 25, and Charles Newby, 16, were taken to the state reformatory at Pendleton Friday morning by Sheriff Verner Bowers. The youths were sentenced to terms of one to ten years each when they pleaded guilty in the Montgomery circuit court early this week to charges of grand larceny.

The boys, who are half brothers, were arrested as members of a gang which has allegedly been preying on small store owners and farmers in several western Indiana counties.

An uncle of the Newby boy, Mitchell Newby, 47, was given a sentence of from one to five years when he pleaded guilty to a charge of petit larceny and was taken to the state prison Wednesday.

Two other alleged members of the gang, Hester Langford, 26, and Chester Newby, 24, are in the county jail on charges in connection with the alleged series of robberies and burglaries.

John H. James, Greencastle attorney, will assist in the defense of Miss Langford, who has been making her home in Greencastle and Russell township in Putnam county for several years.

PACE FUNERAL SUNDAY

Funeral services for William Pace, age 87 years, who passed away Friday morning, will be held from the Costeaville M. E. church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Davis will be in charge. Interment will be in the Costeaville cemetery.

DAWES LOOMS AS POSSIBLE CANDIDATE

OPPOSITION TO HOOVER SEEN IN RESIGNATION OF AMBASSA-DOR TO ENGLAND

MAY BE "FAVORITE SON"

Illinois Diplomat and Former Vice-President Makes Statement Regarding Resignation

CHICAGO, Jan. 9, (UP)—Any talk about Ambassador Charles G. Dawes, as a candidate for president is "nonsense," the ambassador declared emphatically today upon his return to Chicago.

Dawes, yesterday announced that he would resign as ambassador to Great Britain.

"I am coming home to go to work like every good American should," he added.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9, (UP)—The first possibility of major opposition to the renomination of President Hoover developed today around the spectacular figure of Charles G. Dawes of Illinois.

Under circumstances which startled Washington and loosed a flood of conjecture, Dawes announced last night he would resign as ambassador to Great Britain as soon as his initial work as chairman of the delegation to the Geneva disarmament conference is completed.

Political possibilities instantly were seen in this sudden development coming at the opening of the presidential primary season. The sequel depends upon whether Dawes will permit his friends to advance him as a candidate.

Influential Illinois Republicans are confident he could have the state delegation as a favorite son candidate. He has a large following in Ohio, Iowa and other states where Hoover sentiment is at a low ebb.

However, Dawes told the United Press here this week he would not permit his name to be entered in the Illinois primary.

Circumstances attending his resignation announcement caused many Republicans to believe this figure, with the underslung pipe, had opened the door.

Dawes' statement said: "After I have completed the general work which our government has in mind for me at Geneva as chairman of the American delegation, I do not expect to remain for the technical work which will be taken up conjointly with the disarmament experts."

"I shall then resign as ambassador to Great Britain and return to Chicago, where I will take up my old work as a banker and become chairman of the Central Republic Bank and Trust company. After a long absence in official positions, I am looking forward to the renewal of my old associations and to life as a private citizen of Chicago."

Dawes took special precautions to ward off questioners, just before boarding the train for Chicago he gave the announcement to Ross Bartley, his former vice-presidential secretary, with instructions to give it to the press three hours after his train left. Resignations of ambassadors are usually announced at the White House. The White House said Dawes had informed Mr. Hoover of his intentions upon his arrival from London early this week.

Close friends of Mr. Hoover did not attach any significance to this action, they said. They said Dawes wishes to get back to Chicago for business reasons and to work for the success of the world's fair next year.

A few days ago Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, former Republican congresswoman from Illinois, declared in her Rockford, Ill., newspaper that Mr. Hoover was unpopular and she urged the party to pick the best man this year.

Break Lock To Steal Poultry

EIGHTY FOWLS TAKEN FROM
FRANK JONES FARM
FRIDAY NIGHT

Chicken thieves cut a chain lock to enter a poultry house at the farm of Frank Jones, 416 Elm street, on the National road Friday night, and made away with a total of eighty Buff Orpington chickens.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brown resided on the farm until fire destroyed their residence recently. Since then the farm has been unoccupied and the chickens have been left without protection at night with the exception of the chain lock. Thieves evidently heard of the favorable conditions and made away with the flock.

Sheriff Alva Bryan who made an investigation early Saturday found no clues which might lead to the identity of the thieves.

Baxter Convicted In Double Slaying

FOUND GUILTY OF MURDERING
TWO DEPUTY SHERIFFS,
ENROUTE TO PRISON

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Jan. 9, (UP)—Samuel Baxter, 23, was convicted by a jury last night on a charge of murdering two deputy sheriffs in 1928. It was expected that special judge Branton Devol, of Frankfort, would mete Baxter a life imprisonment term.

The jury which convicted Baxter, after a five-day trial, deliberated approximately seven hours.

Baxter was accused of slaying John Grove and Wallace McClure as the deputies were taking him and John Burns to the state reformatory.

DEMOCRATS PREPARE FOR '32 CAMPAIGN

DEMOCRATIC PARTY TO SELECT CITY FOR CONVENTION AT TODAY'S MEETING

ROOSEVELT FORCES ARE ACTIVE

Al Smith, Former Governor of New York, Pleads For Support of Federal Bond Issue

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (UP)—Chicago today was selected as the 1932 Democratic convention city. San Francisco and Kansas City were considered and each received 19 votes. The necessary 55 votes was decided by the ballot of T. J. Manley of the Philippine Islands.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (UP)—Keyed up to a spirit approaching victory, the Democratic national committee met today to select a convention city and prepare for the presidential fight.

Forces of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt were aggressive. They went into the meeting determined to prevent the convention from going to Chicago, which they believed would be a hostile setting. They favored Kansas City. San Francisco also sought the convention, but was handicapped by the remote location.

Roosevelt forces also exerted their hand in arranging for the election of Robert Jackson, New Hampshire national committeeman, to fill out the unexpired term of the late Charles Greathouse of Indiana as secretary of the committee.

Differences over apportionment of delegates to the convention also were in evidence.

Though factional rivalry behind the various candidates is keen, Democrats, seeing the coveted prize dangling more closely than at any time since 1916, are making heroic efforts to subdue their party temperament into harmony. Their hopes were given new momentum by the oratory at the Jackson day dinner last night.

The party was challenged by its popular idol, Alfred E. Smith, to drop party lines entirely in dealing with the depression in a war-time patriotic spirit and to support a federal bond issue for unemployment relief.

Cheered riotously as of old, Smith spurred the Democratic forces in a taunting, unsparing volley against President Hoover, his foe of 1928.

But he struck a new grave note when he turned to the depression which, he said, is working "a greater havoc in the American home than did the recent war."

He assailed prohibition briefly as a costly, hopeless effort, and declared that by taxing liquor the country could gather in $1,000,000,000 a year in revenue.

But he spoke mostly of the depression, and made it plain that he regards this as the dominating question before the country and his party.

"I believe this is the time we should forget party lines entirely," Smith said.

John W. Davis, presidential candidate in 1924, declared "the country is turning with open and manifest eagerness to the Democratic party as the only means of escaping from its present plight."

James M. Cox, candidate in 1920, declared the administration "has but two loyal allies left—privileged business and the Anti-Saloon League." He warned that the way out of the depression may be long.

Cox said that while the campaign will turn largely on economy issues, the party, if it attains power, will have to deal with prohibition.

"When we meet this issue let us meet it candidly and courageously," he said. "Let us leave hypocrisy to those whose political natures do not revolt against it. Let every section realize that this question concerns each section in its own peculiar way."

Set off to a laughing start by the excerpts from 1928 Republican prosperity campaign literature read by Toastmaster Claude G. Bowers, the 2,100 Democrats who packed the Mayflower hotel dining room interrupted with shouts of "Oh yeah?"

Smith brought the dinner down to a serious note when he declared the administration's unemployment plans are "indefensible." He said local private relief is inadequate.

"Home relief is the dose," he said. "Made work is dose in disguise. I know that what I am going to suggest will at least in the beginning be received with an unpopular note, and that is an issue of federal bonds for necessary public works and buildings."

"If these bonds were to be issued in the regular way that the government offers its securities I would say no, positively. But these bonds could be offered by the government direct to the people with the same patriotic appeal that was behind the Liberty bonds, appealing to their loyalty, their devotion and their patriotism."

"And do not make any mistake, that if that is done government securities for the relief of unemployment and for the construction of necessary public works will pull out the hoarded money that tonight is reposing in sugar bowls, ordinary mattresses, or by the more careful in safe deposit boxes."

Smith recommended that a federal administrator of public works supervise the spending of the money, with authority to slash all red tape.

REVISE DOG TAX FIGURES

The county commissioners in special session Saturday morning revised the Putnam County dog tax as fixed at their meeting last Monday. The revised figures do not change the tax on the first male and first female, but changes the tax on each additional dog from $3 to $5, the latter figure being a minimum tax for each additional dog as provided by state law. The dog tax as now fixed is the minimum under Indiana statutes and makes the tax on the first male $2 and on the first female $3.

WARSHIP PROTECTS ACCUSED

Prominent New York Matron, Her Son-in-Law And Soldier Suspects In Slaying

HONOLULU, T. H., Jan. 9 (UP)—Native police piled up damaging evidence today against a socially prominent New York matron, her naval lieutenant son-in-law, and an enlisted man all charged with murdering a Hawaiian accused in an attack on the lieutenant's bride.

And as the accused were hurried aboard a warship anchored in Pearl Harbor for safe keeping, officials took the utmost precautions to prevent a violent outbreak. For smoldering passions of mixed races on this romantic island where East meets West have been fanned to new heat by discovery of the crime, the latest in a long series.

The National Guard was mobilized even before the prisoners were taken aboard the U. S. S. Alton, receiving ship with the fleet.

The accused are:

Mrs. Granville Roland Fortescue, niece of Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, and wife of Major Fortescue, who is a resident of New York, playwright, author, explorer, aide to President Roosevelt, and was decorated for services in the Spanish war and World war.

Lieutenant Thomas Hedges Massie, who married Thalia Fortescue in 1927. He is a member of a prominent Winchester, Ky., family.

Private E. J. Lord, Walford, Mass. Another private, A. L. Jones, New Bedford, Mass., is held for questioning. Mrs. Fortescue, Lieut. Massie, and Private Lord were scheduled to be arraigned before Judge J. M. Christy some time today.

The victim of the murder charged against the three Americans was Joe Kahahawai.

It is charged that Kahahawai, one of several accused in an attack on Mrs. Massie, had been kidnapped, taken to the Massie home, there slain, and then hustled toward Koko Head, a water geyser into which his body was to be thrown, thus hiding forever any evidence of the killing.

THE COOL OF THE EVENING AT THE TAVERN

WHERE JOHN PARSONS MET A NUMBER OF RESPECTABLE
GENTLEMEN

COLONEL JOHN LYNCH'S INN

Was Our Headquarters For Interchange of Thoughts Many Years Ago

A delightful picture of Greencastle and Putnam county back nearly a hundred years—in 1840, in fact—is given us in the published diary of John Parsons, of Petersburg, Virginia, edited by Kate Milner Rabb and published in book form in 1920, a volume which is in the city library of Greencastle.

Parsons was a young man of culture and appreciation, who made copious notes of his wayfaring through the Hoosier state, and in them he sets out his impressions of old-time scenes and persons of this locality, most interestingly. The following are a few passages from his diary, of which more may be given later:

"The town of Greencastle, into which I came by stage in the evening, is very small and unpretentious. The houses are mostly of logs, with the exception of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, which are one-story edifices, and the streets are so-called only by courtesy.

"Locomotion is at all times difficult but, as one of the citizens pointed out to me, jestingly, in muddy weather it is necessary to exercise great precautions in crossing the ravines on the logs which are used as foot bridges.

"I took myself at once to the tavern of which I had been told by friends in Crawfordville—Washington hall, kept by Col. John Lynch, which I discovered to be an inn of some pretensions. Mine host immediately made me most pleasantly at home, and introduced me to a number of the respectable gentlemen of the community, who were gathered in the cool of the evening in the front of the tavern, engaged in conversation.

"I was especially fortunate, for here I found gathered a number of the citizens, among them Judge Joseph Farley, the first probate judge; David Rudisill, the sheriff; William E. Talbot, recorder of deeds; William H. Shields, county surveyor; and Arthur McGaughey, county clerk. The last named gentlemen I met again at his farm south of Greencastle (the old brick residence on state road 43, south of Thad Jones') where I found great pleasure in meeting his family, particularly his wife, a woman of unusual strength of character and remarkable energy, of which last-named quality she showed us an unusual product. On a large and flourishing mulberry tree on their place she has cultivated silk worms, prepared the thread and from it knitted a pair of gloves for her son Edward.

"At the tavern I also met the proprietor of a large farm north of Greencastle, Colonel Alexander Farrow; there was also present a lawyer, Mr. Henry Sechrist; Mr. James Talbot, postmaster; Reese Hardesty, cabinet maker; Capt. W. H. Thornburgh, the most enterprising business man of Greencastle, and Dr. A. C. Stevenson. Dr. Stevenson, who is a tall, dignified gentleman, is, I learned from Col. Lynch, a physician of prominence and a native of Kentucky, who sought this state because of his opposition to slavery."

(John Parsons had a most interesting visit in Putnamville, an account of which will be given in a later article in this series.)

Local admirers of the poetry of Mrs. Sarah T. Bolton, of the last century, who drive into Indianapolis over the National road, may not have had their attention called to the fact that the grounds of the Central hospital, at Mt. Jackson, on west Washington street, of that city, were the site of the home of Mrs. Bolton. The land was bought, in 1845, for the hospital location, from the Boltons.

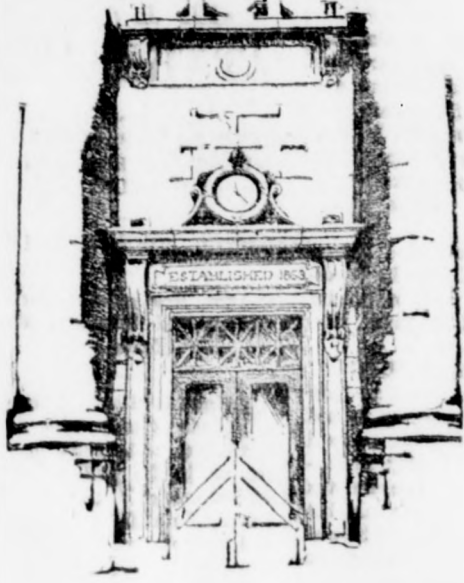

The following passages are taken from the interesting Parsons narrative concerning the Boltons, written in 1840:

"We went the next evening to the farm, Mt. Jackson, named by Mr. Bolton's step-father in honor of Gen. Andrew Jackson. I was told something of this interesting family. Mr. Bolton was editor of the Indianapolis Gazette, for a time, and having met with financial reverses, he and his wife removed to this farm a few years ago, in the endeavor to restore their fortunes. The hardships induced by the financial stringency have been greatly felt by them. They have transformed their home into a tavern and much of the heaviest work of the household

Interesting Meeting

The Parent-Teachers Association of the Mary Emma Jones school met in the school auditorium Friday afternoon with 75 members present. The fifth grade furnished the music. The Rev. Raphael gave an interesting talk on "Agencies That Contribute to Character," in which he expressed the opinion that home influence was the greatest of character builders, and emphasized the fact that before a person can become a great man he must be a great boy.

The attendance banner was won by the second grade. There will be no February meeting because of the joint meeting of all the parent-teachers of the city.

Lesson for January 10
THE FIRST DISCIPLES

LESSON TEXT—John 1:19-51.
GOLDEN TEXT—The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Makes Five New Friends.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Makes Five New Friends.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What It Means to Follow Jesus.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Bringing Others to Christ.

I. John Pointing out the Lamb of God (vv. 19-34).
Through the testimony of John the Baptist, his disciples were directed to Jesus. His theme was "The Lamb of God, the Sin-bearer of the World."

II. Two of John's Disciples Followed Jesus (vv. 35-37).
As a result of the Baptist's testimony, two of his disciples left him and followed Jesus. One of these disciples was Andrew (v. 40) and presumably the other was John, the apostle. When John pointed out Jesus as the Lamb of God, the long-expected Messiah, these disciples sought further acquaintance with Jesus. Through John's testimony, they looked upon the Lord. When they looked, they believed. The proof of their belief was their following after him John speaks, the disciples hear and follow. The whole plan of salvation is wrapped up in this simple testimony and action.

III. The Two Disciples Abiding with Jesus (vv. 38, 39).
I. Jesus' question (v. 38). Seeing the disciples following him, Jesus most kindly inquired as to their object.

2. The disciples' reply (v. 39). They answered his question by inquiring as to his dwelling place. Their reply showed their desire to go apart privately where they could disclose their hearts to him. Knowing their hearts, he invited them to his place of abode. Therefore, for the remainder of that day they held sweet intercourse with the Master.

IV. The Disciples Bringing Others to Jesus (vv. 40-42).
This portion of the lesson is one of the most inspiring passages of the Bible for the encouragement of soul winning.

The very genius of Christianity is self-propagation. The usual method is to begin with those nearest us—home folk and relatives—and then pass out to ever widening circles. The disciples, who were with Jesus in blessed fellowship, go at once to tell others of the priceless treasure they have found.

1. Andrew brings Peter (vv. 40-42). This is a beautiful example of brotherly affection, expressing itself in bringing another to Christ. The best place to begin our testimony to Christ is among our kinsfolk (Luke 8:39). This was a great piece of work for Andrew, for Peter became one of the pillars of the church of God. This was in keeping with what Christ announced, for when Jesus beheld him he said, "Thou art Simon, the son of John. Thou shalt be called Cephas"—meaning a stone.

2. Philip bringing Nathanael (vv. 43-46). Christ found Philip the following day as he would go forth into Galilee. Philip followed him in response to a personal invitation. Then Philip found Nathanael and witnessed to him concerning the messiahship of Jesus. He said unto him, "We have found him, of whom Moses in the law and the prophets did write, Jesus of Nazareth" (v. 45). Christ is the sum and substance of the Old Testament. Nathanael was somewhat skeptical, but was honest. The proper thing is to invite the skeptical to put Christ to a test. Christianity welcomes inquiry.

V. Nathanael Seeing and Hearing Jesus Testifies to His Deity (vv. 47-49).
As soon as Nathanael heard and saw Jesus, all his doubts rolled away. Jesus proved that he was the omniscient One. We do not know what Nathanael was doing under the fig tree. Perhaps he was praying for heavenly light and guidance. Jesus saw him while there. He who is willing to be led shall surely come to the light (John 7:17). He who acts upon the light given shall see greater things (vv. 50, 51). Angels ascending and descending upon the Son of man with the open heavens show that Jesus Christ is the means of communication between earth and heaven (Heb. 10:19, 20; Eph. 2:18; Gen. 28:12).

This narrative concerning the experiences of the first disciples exhibits the following stages of Christian experience:

1. Hearing about Jesus (v. 36).
2. Looking upon Jesus (v. 36).
3. Following Jesus (v. 37).
4. Abiding with Jesus (v. 39).
5. Witnessing for Jesus (vv. 41-45).
6. Bringing others to Jesus.

The Present Duty
Between the great things we cannot do, and the small things we will not do, there is great danger that we shall do nothing. There are not a few people waiting for an opportunity to be heroes, or something unusually brilliant, who in the meanwhile are not ordinary useful citizens.

Meet God
"Meet God in the secret place each day before you come in contact with the world."

CUBS SHADED
BY JEFFERSON
IN 30-29 TILTHIGH SCHOOL NET TOSSERS
BOW TO LAFAYETTE TEAM,
30 TO 29

A lucky shot in the last half minute of play spelled defeat for Greencastle and victory for Jeff. Friday night up at Lafayette, the up-Monon quintet shading the Tiger Cubs, 30 to 29.

The locals outplayed Jeff the majority of the game, running the score to 9-1 in the first three minutes of play. At the half the Purple and Gray warriors were leading 13 to 9, despite the fact that Dawson, regular guard, was benched during most of the half as he had three personal fouls called on him during the initial period.

Jeff managed to knot the count at 17-all late in the third frame. The Lafayette squad then forged to the front, 21-17 but the Cubs came right back to even up matters at 21-21. The battle see-sawed back and forth and with less than a minute to go Greencastle was ahead, 29 to 28. Dawson was holding the ball and the referee ruled that he travelled. This gave Jeff the ball out of bounds and a shot by McCahan gave Lafayette the game
30 to 29.

Tonight the Cubs will meet Bloomington here.

The local B team will clash with the Bloomington reserves in a curtain raiser at 7 p. m.

In the curtain raiser Friday evening, the Jeff reserves trimmed the Tiger Cub B squad, 28 to 10.

TIGERS RAP
OHIO U. BY
30-15 MARGINDEPAUW NETTERS SHOW HEELS
TO BUCKEYES AND WIN
SIXTH STRAIGHT

DePauw's Tigers made it six straight for the season Friday night when they walloped the highly touted Ohio University net squad, 30 to 15.
This victory gave the Old Gold outfit a strong grasp on the Buckeye conference championship as Cincinnati and Ohio Wesleyan have also bowed to the supremacy of the Methodist drapery agitators.

After a rather slow opening half,
during which the Athens, O., athletes proved somewhat troublesome, the DePauw players settled down and held the visitors to a lone field goal and two free throws during the final twenty minutes. The score at the rest intermission was 15 to 11 in favor of Coach Moffett's proteges.

MAN OUT OF WORK ASKS TO BE SENT TO PENAL FARM

Usual order of arrests was reversed Thursday night at the police sta-

Fels-Naptha
For hot, lukewarm or cool water

tion in the arrest of Robert Robinson, 23, who sought out the officers rather than the police having to hunt him.

Robinson appeared first in the office of Mayor Joseph H. Campbell shortly before 6 o'clock while Mayor Campbell was in conference with a committee. Walking in the office hatless and coatless Robinson demanded to be locked up for at least a year.
Mayor Campbell informed him that he couldn't do it as he had no charge against him.

"Will you send me to the penal farm if I bring in some liquor?"
Robinson then asked.

"I wouldn't be surprised and that would be what would happen," Mayor Campbell answered.

Robinson left and within a short time alighted from a car in front of the police station carrying two fruit jars containing some kind of a concoction, which he described as grape wine. He took it inside and was locked up.

A charge of public intoxication was filed against him. No charge of possession was placed as the alcoholic content of the liquid he brought in was very doubtful, Deputy Prosecutor Earl Huntington said.

Robinson gave as his reason for wanting to go to the farm that he was unable to secure work and added that he knew he would have a job there. He said he had gone to the citizens' employment committee but had been refused work because his wife was working and earning $5 a week.—Bloomington Telephone.

What's New
in the New Chevrolet Six

When you read what's new in the new Chevrolet Six, you, too, will agree it's the Great American Value for 1932.

It is the only low-priced car to offer both Synchro-Mesh and Free Wheeling in combination. It has engine and chassis improvements that raise performance to new heights of power, speed and smoothness. It provides the finest Fisher bodies Chevrolet has ever introduced. And it maintains the same factors of dependability and economy that have won the approval of millions of Chevrolet owners.

All that has proved to be sound and dependable in the past, plus all the new advancements given below—at one of the lowest prices in the market! That's why the new Chevrolet Six is the Great American Value for 1932!

Silent Synchro-Mesh Transmission

This well-known feature of high-priced cars is the first type of transmission ever developed. In the new Chevrolet Six, it brings a new type of handling ease and car control to the low-price field. Synchro-Mesh permits you to shift gears with marvelous quickness, quietness and ease. As a safety factor, it is especially valuable. For it enables you to shift rapidly from high back into second, any time you want to use the engine as a brake.

A Smoother, Improved Six-Cylinder Engine

New experiences await you in the Chevrolet Six—new thrills in power, pick-up, smoothness and speed. For Chevrolet has introduced many new engine-features that increase power 20 per cent to 60 horsepower, and make Chevrolet's built-in six-cylinder smoothness even smoother. These features include down-draft carburetion, a new cylinder head, new manifolding, a counterbalanced crankshaft and rubber engine mountings.

Simplified Free Wheeling

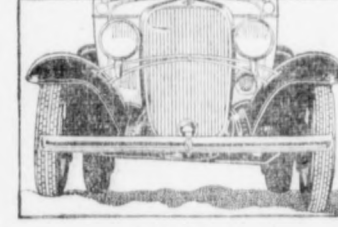

Chevrolet's Free Wheeling mechanism is a new and advanced type that is extremely simple in construction.
You may take advantage of its thrills whenever you want to, by simply pressing a button on the dash.
Thereafter, and until you pull the button out again you are "in" Free Wheeling. You coast along on momentum every time your foot is off the accelerator.
And you can shift with magical simplicity and ease.

65 to 70 Miles an Hour with Faster Acceleration

Vital new features introduced into Chevrolet's six-cylinder engine enable it to develop 65 to 70 miles an hour with astonishing ease, stability and smoothness. And stop-watch tests show an acceleration from 0 to 35 miles in 6.7 seconds.

Distinctive New Front-End
Appearance

The new chromium-plated elliptical radiator, built-in radiator grille, double tiebar, trumpet-type horn, and bullet-type headlamps form a front-end ensemble of arresting beauty, enhanced by new rectangular, adjustable hood-ports.

Stabilized
Front-End Mounting

An ingenious method of mounting front fenders, lamps, double tie-bar and radiator securely to the frame—a method exclusive to Chevrolet—stabilizes the whole front-end assembly and insures steadiness when driving over rough roads.

Smart New Fisher Bodies

Chevrolet's new Fisher bodies are the smartest bodies ever to appear in the low-price field. Moreover, Fisher craftsmen have added many new elements of strength, quietness and solidity to the wood-and-steel construction. Greater vision is provided for occupants.

Down-Draft Carburetion

The down-draft carburetor is a big factor in Chevrolet's greater power, speed and pick-up. An intake silencer combined with it assures greater quietness. A heat control device, operated from the dash, warms up the engine quickly and provides more efficient operation in cold weather.

Finger-Touch Front Seat

One of the most interesting conveniences in the new Fisher bodies is the new type of adjustable front seat. A touch of the finger on a lever at the left of the cushions, and you can move the seat to any desired position. This feature is exclusive to Chevrolet in the lowest-price field.

And the following Chevrolet features that have won the approval of millions of owners: Big, powerful Four-Wheel Brakes . . . Four Hydraulic Shock
Absorbers . . . Four long Semi-Elliptic Springs . . . Full Length Frame . . . Insulated Driver's Compartment

Scientifically Purer..

Something every smoker wants to know!

• Absolutely pure... that's what you expect in the things you eat and drink... and in the cigarettes you smoke.

"Chesterfields are as pure as the water you drink," a noted scientist writes. There's no way to make a purer cigarette.

Starting with tobaccos... the ripest, finest, purest leaf that grows is selected for Chesterfields. Mild to start with... Cross-Blending makes it milder still. Then it's wrapped in paper that is so pure it burns without any taste or odor.

The phrase "Scientifically Purer" is entirely justified. By our use of a highly scientific process which was worked out by Dr. Paul Gross, the Head Chemist of our Research Department, Chesterfield reaches a state of purity unmatched, to our knowledge, by any other cigarette.

In addition, scientists check every ingredient, every method. Even the factory air is washed, and changed every 4½ minutes. More purity!

Notice, too, the clean, white, attractive package... moisture-proof. Chesterfields come to you as good and as pure as they're made. Good... they've got to be good! Change to Chesterfields and see.

A WONDERFUL NEW RADIO PROGRAM!

Tonight... at 10:30... Chesterfield's Radio Program. Light a Chesterfield... lean back... and relax while Nat Shilkret's Orchestra and Alex Gray, soloist, charm away your cares. It's on the entire Columbia Network... broadcast from coast to coast... every night except Sunday. And the hour's 10:30 E. S. T.
